In 2019 as a community outreach, the DFPD donated a Chief for a Day to the School foundation. The Dobbs Ferry Springhurst School students have the unique opportunity to be Chief for a Day at the Dobbs Ferry Police Department. Students in grades first through fifth are eligible to enter and fulfill their dreams of being a police officer and give them a behind the scenes look into law enforcement.

Kellan Guidera and Astle Cooper were awarded the Chief for the Day at the School Foundation Auctions both students aspire to be Police Officers in the future.

Kellan Guidera is 9yrs old and a 4th Grade student at Springhurst Elementary School. Kellen loves skiing, baseball, video games and steak! He loves the movie Mall Cop and wants to know if Dobbs Ferry cops are like that. Kellen has waited 3 years for this opportunity and can not wait to meet the people that keep him, mom and dad and dog Zen safe!

Astle Cooper is a 7 year old second grader at the Springhurst Elementary School. Astle enjoys recess and being with his friends. Astle loves to do math, mental math and tennis, his favorite team is the Mets. Astle loves Paw Patrol and police motorcycles. When he grows up, Astle wants to be a police officer, he wants to work with kids and help them make good choices.
