FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT SUMMER CAMP 2021

Question: Do campers have to wear masks at Camp this Summer?

Answer: Yes, at this time Campers and Staff are required to wear masks at Camp. Appropriate Mask breaks will be given throughout the day. While swimming, campers will not be required to wear masks but while entering and exiting the pool area or going to the bathroom they will need to wear a mask.

Question: Will we need to fill out the Daily COVID-19 checklist before coming to camp each day?

Answer: Yes, Campers and Staff will need to fill out the Daily COVID-19 Checklist before coming to camp and have their temperatures taken upon arrival. Forms will be made available to all campers before Camp begins.

Question: Will Campers be permitted to go inside this Summer?

Answer: No. The only space the camp has available this year is at Gould Park. All activities will be held either in the pool, on the field, or on upper Gould. A tent will be provided for shade. Water coolers will be on hand for children to fill up their water bottles.

Question: What happens if it rains?

Answer: If it is forecasted for light rain throughout the day camp will run as normal. If there is thunder or lightning storms forecasted, camp will be canceled or a late drop-off/early pick-up may occur. Parents/caregivers will need to be flexible.

Question: Will there be Camp Trips for Full-Day Campers?

Answer: No. Unfortunately there will be no Camp trips for the Summer of 2021

Question: Can my camper request to be with their friend in Camp?

Answer: We will try our best to honor all requests, but they can not be guaranteed. Please note due to the current New York State Camp Guidelines we can not switch campers from group to group throughout the Summer.

Question: Will there be an extended-day option for Day Camp?

Answer: At this time, no. Due to the current New York State Camp Guidelines coupled with our space and Camp set-up, we are not going to be able to offer an extended-day option for Summer Camp 2021. Full-Day Camp will end at 3:00pm daily.
